Dear Bill:

Under separate cover I am having sent to you a copy of the Materials in the Law of Corporation Finance in their early reprint. The second or final edition is coming out through West & Co. this fall.

Do let me have your book on finance; we need it very badly, and I can probably make good use of it down here. Better yet, tell Callaghan to send me a copy as a part of their publicity; I might get a market for it at Columbia which would help keep the ball rolling.

Thank you for your good words about the Summer Course. I am not sure that it is as brilliant as you make out; it is a start, and if we kept it going something could be made out of it. As yet it is merely in embryo.

When you are in New York give me a ring, and let us have lunch. Meanwhile give my very best regards to our mutual friends in New Haven, especially Karl and Professor Hicks.

Very sincerely,

Adolph Berle
