Mr. Justice Brandeis
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Justice:

Thank you for your note and the copy of your dissenting opinion in the Ice case, which seems to me a brilliant piece of economic philosophy. I had seen the last section of it in the New Republic, but had not previously read the entire opinion. It has been a real pleasure to do so. I am especially interested, of course, in the liberal citation and effective use of non-legal as well as more purely legal authorities which are so characteristic of your distinguished contributions to the development of jurisprudence.

My old friend, Julian Mack, whom I saw recently, suggested that on one of my rather frequent trips to Washington I call on you. I should indeed be delighted to do so, if I may, on some occasion when you are not too occupied.

Cordially yours,

Ralph C. Epstein
