Supreme Court Judge,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

We have read with interest an article in yesterday's Buffalo Evening News in which you regard as unfair the recent court decision on the Florida Chain Tax measure.

Your outspoken opinion is certainly refreshing especially in view of the fact that we cannot help but feel that your logic is 100% American.

We are firmly convinced that in addition to resulting in additional income which is badly needed at this time, the chain store tax in question would, without question, result in a more fair distribution of the wealth of this country.

With the best of luck, we are

Very truly yours,
