Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy,
Federal Trade Commission Bldg.,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Joe:

A very amusing experience occurred this noon. I was standing talking opposite our office and a bum stopped on his way by and made the following remarks: "Joe Kennedy is going to clean this place up. Him and I went to Harvard together — you know where that is, in Cambridge, Mass," It was pretty funny.

We are leaving for the Cape in two weeks and certainly hope that you will be there.

Sincerely,
Ted Bulkeley
