

Mr. Chas. Evan Hughes
Chief Justice U.S. Supreme Court
Washington, D.C.

Chicago, Ill.
Apr-15-1935

Mr. Hughes – I have been authorized to write you asking that you free Angelo Herndon in the case of the State of Georgia vs. Herndon.

We feel like it is a terrible thing for a young man to be sentenced to 18 to 20 years on a chain gang merely because he led some hungry starving workers to get something to eat. How can such things happen in a so called free country. These are the things that make thousands of communist every day. Only in our Southern States can such things happen.

Henry Corbishley, Chairman
Unemployment Council No 530.
