Personal

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

I hope that at the time of our conversation a day or so ago I made clear to you how much I regret that you are leaving the Commission. You have been so cordially cooperative that I shall always remember our meetings with great pleasure.

I sincerely hope that the coming journey may be all that you anticipate in enjoyment and benefit. May I also venture to hope that upon your return I may have the pleasure of seeing you often here in New York?

Faithfully yours,

Charles R. Gay
President.
