

Possible evolution to an internally harmonious, competent, politically balanced, and comparatively permanent commission:

Present Commissioners

Landis (Democrat) -- remaining

Kennedy (Democrat) -- resigned replace by Douglas

Matthews (Republican) -- resigning replace by Dunn (Democrat), Chicago (unlikely to accept) or Truitt (Democrat), St. Louis (likely to accept)

Healy (Republican) -- term expiring July 1 replace by Guthrie (Republican)

Ross (Democrat or Republican) -- resigning within a year replace with a Johnson California Republican familiar with power problems (possibly Carl Wheat, counsel Los Angeles Municipal Power Authority)

Future Commissioners

Landis (Democrat) -- Mass. -- New England

Douglas (Democrat) -- Connecticut -- The Middle Atlantic States

Truitt (Democrat) -- Missouri -- The Border States

Guthrie (Republican) -- Illinois -- The Middle West

Wheat (Republican) -- California -- The Far West
