

May 4, 1938

Messrs. Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett
120 Broadway
New York, N. Y.

Attention: John F. MacLane, Esq.

Re: Securities and Exchange Commission
v. Electric Bond and Share Company

Gentlemen:

This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated April 28, 1938, transmitting the following papers to complete the record in the above case:

(1) Final judgment on mandate with your consent appended.

The mandate of the Supreme Court was issued on May 4, and I understand it was filed with the District Court in New York on May 5. The provision in the judgment that no costs are to be taxed, and your agreement to pay for taxable costs upon notification of the amount thereof, is of course quite satisfactory.

(2) Stipulation as to registration of defendants.

(3) Affidavit of Joe H. Gill.

(4) Affidavit of J. E. Davidson.

(5) Order dissolving injunction with form for consent attached.

I have examined and signed the stipulation and consent, herewith enclosed, and have forwarded the proposed decree on mandate to Mr. Lamar Hardy with instructions to join you in submitting all of the papers to the court as soon as may be convenient.

Very truly yours,

Robert H. Jackson
Solicitor General

Enc.