

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D.C.

CHAMBERS OF JUSTICE HUGO L. BLACK

November 4, 1943.

In re: No. 24, Securities and Exchange Commission
v.
Joiner Leasing Corporation.

Dear Bob:

While I think you have done a fine job on showing that the Securities & Exchange Commission was right in this case, I have held the opinion because you conclude that the case should be remanded to the Circuit Court of Appeals for a new appraisal of the evidence. I was of the opinion that we should decide the whole matter here. A few minutes ago, I received a copy of a letter which Justice Murphy wrote you on this matter, and I shall hold the opinion to see how you feel about his suggestion.

Sincerely,

HUGO L. BLACK

Mr. Justice Jackson.