Major General Edwin M. Watson
Military Aide to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

1060

Dear General Watson:

In the latter part of March, as the result of a conference which I had with Justice Douglas, I wrote a note to the President. Two or three days later Miss Barrows advised my office that the President would like to see me around the middle of April.

I told Miss Barrows and Miss Tully that I was scheduled to make a speaking trip to Texas and the Southeast which would call for my being out of the city until late in April. They both suggested that I continue with my plans but drop you a line immediately upon my return as the President was anxious to see me.

I have just arrived back and plan to be in Washington until Monday, when I propose to go on to Philadelphia. I can come to Washington at any time when it is convenient for the President to see me. I would appreciate it if you would have Miss Barrows give me a day or two's notice through Miss Sawyer in my Washington office.

Sincerely yours,

Ganson Purcell
