SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
Washington, D. C.

To SEC Employees - past and present:

THIS YEAR MARKS THE 30th ANNIVERSARY OF THE COMMISSION'S CREATION. During the period of its administration of the Federal securities laws, the Commission has contributed most significantly to the protection of the public interest and the interest of investors. On this anniversary occasion it is fitting and proper that the Commission's noteworthy record of service be commemorated; and it is appropriate that those whose dedicated efforts over the years have contributed so much to that record should join in celebrating it.

You are invited to observe this occasion
