Commissioner John R. Evans
Securities and Exchange Commission
500 North Capitol Street
Washington, D. C. 20549

Dear Commissioner Evans:

I just read several newspaper articles indicating that several individuals are being considered by the White House for possible appointment as a Commissioner in your place.

I would just like you to know that, in my view, the best thing the White House could do would be to reappoint you to another five year term. In my judgment, you have served the Commission in an exemplary fashion. It is sad indeed when men of character and judgment, who are willing to serve the public, are not reappointed. In the event that you fail to receive the consideration you deserve, I am certain that you will succeed in whatever endeavors you may undertake. I hope that you are reappointed and wish you well in whatever the future holds for you.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH L. GRANT
Assistant Regional Administrator
