

Philip A. Loomis, Jr. Award

“This award honors the former General Counsel and Commissioner who had a distinguished career of 28 years with the Commission. The award will be presented annually and will go to the individual who displays the qualities of outstanding legal scholarship, analysis and draftsmanship; the legal counselor’s ability to reconcile opposing viewpoints and create workable solutions to difficult legal and policy issues; and the highest caliber of personal and professional integrity.” (1983)
