

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 10, 2001

President today announced his intention to nominate four individuals to serve in his administration.

The President intends to nominate Cari Dominguez to be a Commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission for a five year term expiring July 1, 2006, and upon confirmation, will be designated Chairman. She is currently a Principal at Dominguez and Associates, a Maryland based consulting firm that assists clients with workforce issues. She worked in the executive search field with Spencer Stuart in San Francisco, from 1993 to 1995 and with Heidrick & Struggles in Washington, D.C., from 1995 to 1998. Dominguez served at the U.S. Department of Labor from 1989 to 1993 as Assistant Secretary for the Employment Standards Administration and at the Department of Labor from 1974 to 1983 in the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs. She has received numerous awards including being named one of the 100 Most Influential Hispanics in the Country by Hispanic Business Magazine. She received both an undergraduate and Master's degree from American University.

The President intends to nominate Dennis L. Schornack to be a Commissioner of the International Joint Commission, United States and Canada and upon confirmation will be designated Chairman. He is presently Special Advisor for Strategic Initiatives to Governor John Engler of Michigan, serves as Commissioner of the Low-level Radioactive Waste Authority and sits on the Board of Directors for the Great Lakes Protection Fund. From 1984 to 1991 he served as a Legislative Assistant to the Senate Majority Leader of the Michigan State Senate and before joining the Senate, was a policy analyst for the Michigan House of Representatives from 1979 to 1984. He is a graduate of Michigan State University and earned a Master's degree from the University of Michigan School of Public Health.

The President intends to nominate Janet Hale to be Assistant Secretary of Health and Human Services for Management and Budget. She currently serves as the Associate Administrator for Finance for the U.S. House of Representatives. She held the position of Vice President of the United States Telephone Association from 1995 to 1998 and served as Executive Vice President of the University of Pennsylvania from 1993 to 1994. From 1989 to 1993 she was Associate Director for Economics and Government in the Office of Management and Budget and served as Assistant Secretary for Budget and Programs in the Department of Transportation from 1986 to 1989. Before joining the Transportation Department, Hale was Deputy Assistant Secretary for Housing at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development from 1981 to 1986. She is a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and received a Master's in Public Administration from Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

The President intends to nominate Harvey Pitt to be a Commissioner of the Securities and Exchange Commission for the remainder of a five year term expiring June 5, 2003 and upon confirmation will be designated Chairman. He is currently a Partner and Chairman of the D.C. office of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson where his specialties include Corporate, Securities, Banking and Administrative Law. Pitt served at the United States Securities and Exchange Commission from 1972 to 1978 as Chief Counsel of the Division of Market Regulation from 1972 to 1973, as Executive Assistant to the Chairman from 1973 to 1975 and as General Counsel from 1975 to 1978. He has held adjunct professorships at the University of Pennsylvania School of Law, Georgetown University Law Center and George Washington University Law School. He is a graduate of City University of New York – Brooklyn College and received a J.D. from St. John's University Law School.
