

June 24, 1935

Dear Mr. De Witt:

I should be glad to have you call on me Thursday and I will give you as much time as you want.

Regarding the Chairman, however, I apparently do not make myself clear. Because of the terrific pressure on his time and because of the many problems of the Commission with which he cannot be intimately familiar, he makes it a practice not to discuss any Commission question unless the question has been previously outlined by the caller in a letter to him. I think you can readily understand why he finds this necessary.

Accordingly I suggest that if you wish to see him you write to him through me and outline what you want to say.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas H. Gammack,
Executive Assistant.

Mr. John De Witt,
120 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

Gammack: js