

February 9, 1937

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes
Associate Justices Willis Van Devanter
James Clark McReynolds
Louis D. Brandeis
George Sutherland
Pierce Butler
Harlan Fiske Stone
Owen J. Roberts
Benjamin Nathan Cardozo

The majority of the citizens of the United States look to you as their final refuge from the ever-increasing number of dangerous proposals threatening their liberty and freedom.

Do not let the present storm deter you from your efforts to protect our best interests as you interpret them. Continue your administration of justice regardless of the pressure of outside influences.

Above all, do not desert us by resigning in our hour of greatest fear.

Respectfully yours,

Frank J. G. Duck

Frank J. G. Duck,
753 Howard Street,
Teaneck, N. J.