

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C.

CHAMBERS OF
ROBERT H. JACKSON

January 11, 1945

No. 81 - Otis & Co. v. S.E.C.
Recirc. 1/10/45

Dear Stanley:

I agree - but I wonder if mention of the constitutional issue at the end will not give encouragement to the opponents and tend to put life into their objections. As long as it is not raised it might be as well to pass it without mention. But whatever you think will be agreeable to me.

Bob