

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA :
v. : 4178c - Plea
CONSTANTINO VINCENT RICCARDI :

Newark, N.J., October 30, 1946.

BEFORE:

HON. WILLIAM F. SMITH, U.S.D.J.

APPEARANCES:

EDGAR H. ROSSBACH, U.S. Attorney, and
CHARLES J. TYNE, Ass't. U.S. Attorney, representing the Government.

JOHN MILTON representing the Defendant.

THE COURT: Now, Mr. Rossbach I will take up your additional matter. Do you have the indictment here?

MR. ROSSBACH: The name of the defendant is Constantino Vincent Riccardi.

THE COURT: Do you represent the defendant, Mr. Milton?

MR. MILTON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Have you read the indictment?

MR. MILTON: Yes, sir; we waive the reading of the indictment and plead not guilty.

THE COURT: Plea not guilty.

MR. MILTON: With respect to bail, Mr. Riccardi lives in Arizona. Upon being notified by telephone of the indictment he immediately came here to surrender himself. He is a respectful citizen of Arizona and upon my request, and assuming your Honor's approval, the United States Attorney has recommended bail of $1,000.

THE COURT: Is there any prior criminal record so far as you know, Mr. Rossbach?

MR. ROSSBACH: No, sir, not so far as we know.

THE COURT: Is it so that he responded to a 'phone call' without--

MR. ROSSBACH: That's right.

THE COURT: All right, let bail be fixed at $1,000.
