Dear Judge Allred:

I am sorry that I did not inform you sooner concerning the Chairman's visit to Dallas and Fort Worth. He has looked upon this trip as his first vacation since last June, and he did not want it to take on the aspect of an official visit. However, he will be in Fort Worth on April 21, and he has been informed by Mr. Marshall Newcomb that a luncheon will be held for him in Fort Worth on that day. We know no other details. Naturally at that time he will visit your office.

We would appreciate your considering this trip as part of his vacation, and he will make his own arrangements. We do appreciate, however, your very kind offer to assist him.

I too appreciate your invitation to accompany him. Generally we follow the policy that one of us should be present in this office at all times. A year ago last fall, I had the opportunity to be in Fort Worth and Dallas during the week of the Fair and on the day of the Texas-Oklahoma football game. That was a day which I will always remember. I have never seen any football game which aroused more enthusiasm than that one.

Sincerely yours,

Edward T. Tait
Executive Assistant to the Chairman
