Chief Justice Earl Warren
The Supreme Court
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Chief Justice:

We have today sent the enclosed letter to Mr. Banning E. Whittington, press officer for the Supreme Court, and requested that he bring it to the attention of the proper authorities.

Mr. Whittington has told us he does not know whether he will pass our letter and request along for appropriate action. In view of that, we feel it proper for us also to address our inquiry to you.

Sincerely,

Don Oberdorfer
