Washington, D. C. 20543

CHAMBERS OF
THE CHIEF JUSTICE

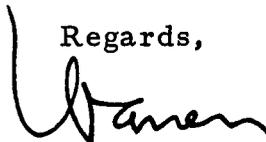

July 6, 1970

Dear Harry:

I have your "country boy" letter. I have no advice about tall hats, but it appears to me your wardrobe is in good order.

I have ordered air mail envelopes today. Any other requests?

Regards,

P. S. In reading the "year-end" pieces, I am finding a lot about myself. It's cheaper than Ruth Connolly or Howard Rome! There will be more -- the penalty for the Center Seat. Don't hold it against me that the New York Times is so moderate in its criticisms!
