Dear Mr. Thornburgh:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 13, 1977 to Chairman Hills, in which you request that the Commission make available to the United States Department of Justice investigative files and material compiled in connection with our investigations of the subject corporations.

The Commission will have to act on your request and this matter will be presented to them as soon as possible. As soon as the Commission has acted, we will contact you.

Sincerely,

Stanley Sporkin
