ATTN: Mr. John R. Evans

Dear Mr. Evans:

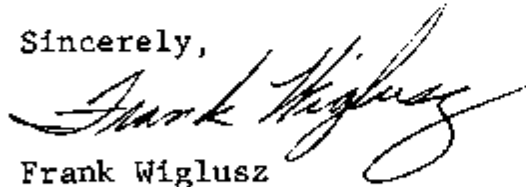

Thanks for having your head screwed on right.

It was refreshing to read about your candid views on money market funds. Also, for telling the House subcommittee that you are opposed to new restrictions on money market funds.

It's unusual to find someone in Washington, D. C. who still believes that the small investor should not be deprived of the same investment benefits available to large investors.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
