Re: New Assistant General Counsel

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Eric Summergrad as Assistant General Counsel to fill the vacancy created by David Sirignano's departure for the Division of Corporation Finance. Eric's team is one of three in Jake Stillman's group with primary responsibility for appellate litigation.

Eric is currently Senior Special Counsel in the appellate litigation group. Prior to joining the Commission's staff in May, 1984, he was with the law firm of Arnold & Porter.
