Dear Craig and Bob:

I want to strongly recommend Norman S. Johnson of Salt Lake City, Utah, for a position as a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Norm is a partner with Van Cott, Bagley, Cornwall and McCarthy and is a respected expert in the securities field.

Norm has had a distinguished career in securities law. A former trial attorney at the S.E.C., Norm has practised and written extensively in this field for over twenty years. He has also served in the public sector as a state assistant attorney general and taught security law at the University of Utah Law School. Norm is an active member of the American Bar Association and is a past president of the Utah State Bar.

It is hard to find a person as qualified, respected and admired as Norm, and I hope you will give him serious consideration.

Sincerely,

Orrin G. Hatch
United States Senator
