RE: Eric Summergrad's Receipt of the Federal Bar
Association's 1989 Younger Federal Lawyer Award

I am extremely pleased to announce that the Federal Bar Association has selected Eric Summergrad to receive the 1989 Younger Federal Lawyer Award. Chairman Ruder nominated Eric for this prestigious award several months ago. The Federal Bar Association describes the Younger Federal Lawyer Award as follows:

"[T]he program is designed to accord recognition to outstanding young federal attorneys * * * . [C]ivilian or military lawyers under the age of thirty-six, having three continuous years of federal service are eligible for the award. Award recipients will be selected by a panel of distinguished federal judges."

The Award will be presented to Eric at a luncheon at the Hyatt Regency Hotel on Thursday, August 24. Note that, as set forth in my July 31 memorandum, at a luncheon on the following day, Friday August 25, the FBA will present the Tom C. Clark Award to Paul Gonson. I hope as many of you as possible will attend one or both luncheons in honor of our two colleagues. To make reservations, call Julia Tindal at 638-0252.

Congratulations, Eric!
