

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN
October 22, 1990

MR. PRESIDENT:

Would you mind signing a commemorative copy of the Market Reform Act of 1990 for Richard Breeden?

This is a very significant bill, and we were forced to sign it on the road, without the notice Richard would have wanted. A note from you would recognize the hard work Richard put in to make this bill a reality.

Thank you.
