

The Securities and Exchange Commission Historical Society works to preserve the history of the SEC, to sponsor research and educational programs regarding the SEC, and to enhance understanding of the development of the U.S. and the world's capital markets.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

2001-02 MEMBERSHIP

During 2001-02, the Society will:

- sponsor, with the SEC, "Securities Regulation in the Global Internet Economy," a major issues conference in Washington, D.C. on November 14 and 15, 2001. This conference, the first major issues conference since 1984, will focus on regulation of the securities market, regulation of investment managers and market professionals, disclosure and jurisdiction.
- conduct oral history interviews with former SEC chairmen, commissioners and directors, and other people with special memories of financial market events. The first interview will be a roundtable gathering, focusing on the 1963 Special Study, in early October.
- exhibit visuals and artifacts from the SEC archives through the Society's expanded Web site (www.sechistorical.org) and through a transportable display for conferences.

On the cover: From a photo of the Chairman, Commissioners, Division Heads and Assistant Division Heads of the Securities and Exchange Commission, September 23, 1935.

Your membership in 2001-02 will enable you to:

- receive the Society's biannual newsletter and Annual Report.
- be listed in the Annual Report as a current member.
- receive a discount on registration to "Securities Regulation in the Global Internet Economy," the November 2001 major issues conference, as well as a copy of the proceedings book from the conference.
- receive invitations to members-only events, including the 2002 Annual Meeting at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
- support the work of the Society in preserving and disseminating the history of one of the most successful independent administrative agencies in our nation's history.

Membership for the 2001-02 year is current through December 31, 2002 at the following annual membership levels:

- Member $25 - $99
- Contributor $100 - $499
- Director's Circle $500 - $999
- Commissioner's Circle $1,000 - $4,999
- Chairman's Circle $5,000 and more

- I/we will join the Securities and Exchange Commission Historical Society for the 2001-02 membership year with a gift of $_____.
- My/our check, made payable to the Securities and Exchange Commission Historical Society, is enclosed.
- My/our pledge will be fulfilled by September 30, 2002.
