Office of Legislative Affairs

Dear Chairman Pitt:

As set forth in our letter of July 2, 2002, the Committee on Energy and Commerce has undertaken a comprehensive review of the propriety of financial statements by certain publicly traded companies. The Committee herein expands this review to include a number of additional companies each of which are alleged to have similarly engaged questionable accounting practices: Rite Aid Corporation ("Rite Aid"), Adelphia Communications Corporation ("Adelphia"), Waste Management, Inc. ("Waste Management"), Kmart Corporation ("Kmart"), Sunbeam Corporation ("Sunbeam"), Enron Corporation ("Enron"), Peregrine Systems, Inc. ("Peregrine") and MicroStrategy Incorporated ("MicroStrategy").

Accordingly, pursuant to Rules X and XI of the U.S. House of Representatives, we request that the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") provide to the Committee the information set forth below by Wednesday, July 17, 2002. Further, the Committee requests that the SEC respond to each of the questions below separately for each company in the following order: Rite Aid, Adelphia, Waste Management, Kmart, Sunbeam, Enron, Peregrine and MicroStrategy.

1. For the period from January 1997 through the date upon which the SEC began its formal inquiry into the company, or, in the case of Waste Management only, for the period of January 1992 through the date upon which the SEC began its formal inquiry into the company, did the SEC review any of the 10-Qs or 10-Ks filed by the company? If so, identify the filings reviewed, provide a brief description of the reviews conducted, and provide all records relating to such reviews.

If the SEC did not take action against the company, provide an explanation as to the reason(s) for the SEC's decision. In addition, provide all records relating to any such inquiries or investigations.
3. For the time period referenced in Question No. 1, all records relating to communications between or among the SEC, its Commissioners, officers, or employees with respect to the company's accounting practices, disclosures, or financial statements.
